Nock was living here with his wife.

Known as Abraham Meyer. Newport News, Va., November 28.—Milton R. Nock, alias Abraham Meyer, the young man who was arrested last night in Detroit, Mich., for the Newport News authorities, is wanted here on the charge of embezzling about $7,000 of the funds of the First National Bank of this city. Nock, who was auditor of the bank, absconded a year ago last July while his books were being investigated, and a week after he had married Fannie Meyer, daughter of a merchant. It is said that after leaving in Detroit and securing a position in Detroit, Nock embraced the Jewish religion. He was known as Meyer. A report emanating from a Detroit source says that Mrs. Nock, who is about nineteen, asked that she be arrested as her husband's accomplice.
